OREGON REGIME GIVEN AMERICAN RECOGNITION

New Ambassadors will be Named; Claims Between Countries to Go Before Commission

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico were resumed today and the breach existing for more than three years between the two governments was closed. The action of the American government is expected by officials here to be followed soon by recognition of the Obregon government by Great Britain, France, Belgium and Cuba, thus restoring Mexico to its former position in the family of nations.

The State Department, through a rearrangement with Mexican City officials, announced the accord of the two governments for President Coolidge. A formal statement, issued at noon gave full credit for the understanding which must be reached with officials to Charles E. Warren and John Barton Payne, the commissioners appointed by President Harding to the Mexico City conference held with a view to expediting an arrangement for the restoration of friendly relations.

COMMISSIONERS PRAISED

A similar reference was contained in the statement to the part played by the Mexican commissioners in their efforts to bring the Mexican City officials comprehend the American attitude toward their government. It was "in view" of the report and recommendations submitted to the two commissioners the statement said that the United States resolved to renew relations.

The State Department's announcement follows:

"The government of the United States and the government of Mexico in view of the reports and recommendations made by the two respective commissioners submitted a result of the American-Mexican conference held in the city of Mexico from May 14, 1923 to August 15, 1923 have arrived to renew diplomatic relations between them and therefore pending the appointment of ambassadors, they are taking the necessary steps to accredit formally their respective charge d'affaires."

It was indicated in diplomatic quarters here that France probably would designate its ambassador to Mexico it would not be surprising if that country, before taking such a step, goes into matters thoroughly.

ATTITUDE OF BRITAIN

Although no official word has been received here as to the possibility of Great Britain recognizing Mexico, it would not be surprising if that country, before taking such a step, goes into matters thoroughly.

Great Britain has considerable influence in Mexico and it is believed she may find it desirable to protect them through conventions or otherwise.

"Times" August Advertising

2,254,245 AGATE LINES

Yesterday, with the close of business, the Los Angeles Times for the eighth consecutive month exceeded its large advertising figures of the corresponding month a year ago, marking the huge gain for August, 1923, over August, 1922, of 147,469 agate lines.

Ever since December 31, 1920, The Times has occupied a unique position among newspapers, having only its own past record as a yardstick for measuring progress. On that date The Times took the lead as the largest advertising medium in the world, a distinction still held, which gives special significance to its advertising figures.

In connection with The Times' success in advertising, it is proper to note that each increase in business has been balanced with an equivalent sincere effort to better serve its readers.

Times readers receive a long list of exclusive features—a story magazine, agricultural magazine, rotogravure picture section, children's tabloid supplement, etc.—all in addition to a multitude of departments and a news service of unrivaled completeness. Notwithstanding this fact, The Times lately declared an important special "reader-dividend"—the beautiful new motion-picture magazine, The Pre-View, which, selling on newsstands at 10 cents per copy, is served without charge each Wednesday to all regular monthly subscribers.

MEXICO IS DELIGHTED BY REPORT

Capital City Takes on Appearance of National Fete; People Happy

BY JACK STAAR-HUNT

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 31.—Mexico City presents a festive appearance and is as though the city were celebrating a national holiday. Lights are turned on at the public buildings. Recognition is the sole topic of conversation at theaters and cafes.

"Under what terms are we recognized?" is the question asked by everybody.

The recognition announcement came as a complete surprise to the business world here. It was generally believed that recognition would be withheld until the inst. Mexico's national holiday.

Recent contradictory reports regarding restoration of formal relations had convinced the public that recognition would come eventually, but no one had believed it would come so soon.

The recognition announcement came in a statement made by Alfonso J. Purón, Minister of Foreign Relations.

"In view of information and recommendations which their commissioners have received from the Mexican-American commission here, it is declared that nothing having been done, the union notices for suspension of war will stand."

The suspension of the mines, ordered for midnight tonight, will proceed as planned.

Operators and Union Officials Fail to Accept Pinchot's Proposals for Peace

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

HARRISBURG (Pa.) Aug. 31.—All hope of averting a suspension of mining operations in the anthracite region vanished today. Operators and officials of the miners' union replied to Gov. Pinchot's four propositions for settlement, responses that were variously qualified and limited. In acceptance of the principles tendered.

After holding them more than four hours in executive discussions, the operators and miners' officials brought them together. The Governor dismissed both groups, pledging them to return at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Gov. Pinchot said at adjournment that both sides would maintain "status quo" during the interim, while John L. Lewis, president of the miners' union, declared that "nothing having been done to the business world here, it would be withheld until the inst. Mexico's national holi-

to Secure Recognition of the United States in Mexico

Recognition of the government here as in line with the successive administrations, of friendly country so long as the safeguarded.

Nocturne has hitherto been in many ways that of "show me first," and bearing in mind the series of turbulent internal upheavals through which the country has passed during recent years, he may have been right. To recognize him, however, will be now the result of the policies of his country's delegates during conferences lasting for more than three months in Mexico City, and the official recognition of the conference, the United States now has in Mexico.

Recognition without confidence would be like Hamlet without the time. Time must naturally expire before the two countries can agree, and to hasten this realization good Mexicans appreciate that our government must honestly agree up to the tenth agreed upon by the two conferences. Failure in this respect would leave Mexico in a worse situation than before.

QUIET ELECTIONS

Another, and a very important, will which doubtless mainly affect Mexico's future international relations, is the approaching Presidential election. On nearly all occasions these have fortunately resulted in the splitting of much blood. A really peaceful election, such as we have seen, would do more than anything in the world to prove the stability of the republic, and the safety of the Mexican people in their take place among the established nations. For next elections to be of the same order would under all the circumstances be disastrous.

More educated Mexican is alive to the foregoing, and appreciates the fact that, though it has been behavior itself, it will probably follow the part of England, France and other countries which have withdrawn from the League of Nations.

The Silver Wave, which conveyed the original party of five to the island in the first place, encountered difficulties and steamed right up to Wrangell Island, where it had passengers and their effects and steamed back to Nome without any untoward incident occurring.

The King and Winge, which rescued the survivors of the wrecked Karluk in 1914, had a similar experience. It met practically no ice until within a short distance of the shore.

But last year when Capt. Joseph Bernard, owner and sailing master of the Teddy Bear, attempted to get through he found every avenue closed by great fields of heavy ice, and was forced to abandon the attempt.

The Crawford party, which landed two years ago, was dispatched from Nome in 1914 by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer to take formal possession of Wrangell Island in the name of the British King on behalf of Canada. The men were forced to remain there for a year at least, and until the Canadian government should extend official recognition to their act. In any event a ship was to be sent the following year to take them a further supply of provisions and to bring off those of the party who were disinclined to spend another year on the island.

TRIP FAILS

Bernard's plan was to sail north along the coast of Alaska, across the mouth of Kitezhoo Sound, past Cape of Wales, to Point Hope, and then proceed to the Siberian coast at a point little more than 100 miles south of Wrangell.

He left Nome about August 18. A heavy northwest wind, however, caused him to change his plans, and he decided to cross the strait directly to East Cape, the most northern point of Siberia.

Here he received word from ships that had been north of the Siberian coast that heavy masses of ice were preventing him from returning northward, so that he might be able to follow along the coast between the ice and the land. This he did, proceeding ten or fifteen miles at a time until stopped by the ice, and waiting until the tide had come down again from the shore. In this manner he managed to reach Cape Wankarek, about 200 miles south of Wrangell Island. There, however, the ice pressed in on the land so closely and so continually that he was unable to proceed further.

NOTICEABLE CHANGE

The American resident in Nome is also a noticeable one, and appears popular. "American" is nowadays almost no longer in that hatred as was the case in 1914. Canadian, however, has been to insults from newsmen in the streets, precipitate small matters, and business is brighter than it has been for years. and an Eskimo woman were set down on one of the bleakest of Arctic islands—Wrangell Island, off the coast of Siberia—to establish a claim to British possession. Harold Noise, commanding a little power boat, sailed from Nome August 3 to rescue them. The story of his expedition, written by him, will be told exclusively in this city in The Times on his return.

Wrangell Island has come to be a "top of the Polar sea, claimed by Russia, sought by Canada, under scrutiny by the British Empire, demanded by some Americans, and watched by Japan. Within a few years the island, now a potential trading post, may be a pivotal factor in airplane traffic direct from England via the North Pole.

This is not a dream, it is the prediction of explorers and scientists. But meanwhile there is the drama of the four men and the Eskimo woman left there two years ago. The following article deals with the human side of the situation and the failure of the previous rescue effort.

BY D. M. LEBOURDAIS

Harold Noise, who sailed from Nome August 3 to attempt to reach Wrangell Island and bring relief to the four white men and an Eskimo woman marooned there for almost two years was expected to have either a comparatively easy task or a comparatively difficult one.

The Silver Wave, which conveyed the original party of five to the island in the first place, encountered difficulties and steamed right up to Wrangell Island, where it had passengers and their effects and steamed back to Nome without any untoward incident occurring.

The King and Winge, which rescued the survivors of the wrecked Karluk in 1914, had a similar experience. It met practically no ice until within a short distance of the shore.

Back of Harding
Alaskan Policy

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—President Coolidge, although having privately laid aside the matter of Alaskan policy to take up more pressing problems, has indicated his inclination toward adoption of the terms outlined by President Harding in Seattle yesterday.

The President feels that President Harding and the Cabinet members, who accompanied him on his Alaskan trip, were given an excellent opportunity to study the problems of the Territory and that he hardly could do better than to accept their judgment and benefit by their advice.

In any event Mr. Coolidge, it was added, intends to do all within his power to encourage the investment of capital and to provide such conditions as will afford the territory a larger population.

BUSINESS HERE LEAPING AHEADFederal Departments Show Large Collections*Month Just Closed Outstrips Same Period of '22*Harbor and Postoffice Make Spectacular Gains

August marked a further advance in the activities of the local branch of the Federal service, the business transacted by the Los Angeles Postoffice, and the collector of internal revenue and customs showing a decided increase in volume.

U. S. Collector of Customs Schwaebe, in his collections for the month, hauled up figures higher than ever before due in a large measure to the heavy imports entering the local port. The figures were $420,162.45, as compared with $158,897.88, for the same month in 1922. The imports, also, show a rise in the month, coming from, leaped from $1,207,185, in August, 1922, to $2,119,089 in August, 1923. The exports were $2,251,661, in August, 1922, and there was a small drop in the month, the figures showing $1,924,226. The shipments to Hawaii amounted to $456,836.

The receipts of the postoffice for the month showed a further climb, the figures being $527,164.56, as compared with $479,844.94 for August, 1922, an increase of $47,320.52, or a percentage of 10.82. The month of August is usually a slow one in business, being of the mid-summer period, but the gains over a year ago are substantial.

The receipts of U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue Goodell topped any of the other departments, showing an increase of 42 per cent as compared with those of the same month last year. The figures for a year ago, totaled $1,574,948.53, made up of income tax, $1,494,948.53, and excise taxes, $887,722.55. The collections for the month just closed totaled $1,555,148.54, made up of income tax, $1,475,948.53, miscellaneous taxes, $1,271,197.65, or a round number of $881,098.75. The increase is largely due to the efforts of the field agents who have been big drivers in the collection of income tax and excise taxes known as the sales tax collections, to which the theaters and moving-picture houses in the Southland are an important factor.

Child Struck by Truck; Possibly Fatally Injured

Little Elizabeth Witt, 5 years of age, was run down and possibly fatally injured while at play yesterday near her home at 513 East Twelfth street. The child was struck by a truck owned by the Kay Motor Supply Company. She was hurried to the Crocker Street Hospital and admitted to the Receiving Hospital. Physicians stated that she was suffering from a possible skull fracture, a broken left arm and a fractured leg.

The driver of the truck did not report the accident to police yesterday afternoon, although he is said to have stopped and taken the child to the hospital immediately after the accident. Detectives Warren and Bligh are conducting a search for him.

As the result of a story which appeared in The Times last Thursday morning, Edward Cullens, "chaperon" of eighteen Santa Barbara girls, between the ages of 10 and 17 years, was stopped the same day in his exhibition of the "Santa Barbara Kiddies," returned to Santa Barbara with the children that night and the girls restored to their homes.

State Labor Bureau officials and various children's welfare organizations had tried for two weeks to stop Cullens. But it was not until the story of his asserted exploiting of the children appeared that county officials were reached and a stop to his activities.

FLOOD OF LETTERS

W. E. Steinick, deputy labor commissioner, said yesterday that the publicity given the affair had resulted in a flood of telegrams and letters, as well as numerous long-distance telephone calls.

Among these was official information that Cullens had been stopped by the authorities and the "Santa Barbara Kiddies" returned to their homes.

Search for him was started following complaints from the Santa Barbara Humane Society and other organizations and reports that he was not adhering to his promise of charity exhibitions, but was exploiting the children professionally.

Cullens himself was one of those to reach Mr. Steinick by long-distance telephone. He telephoned to the department yesterday morning from Santa Barbara, and attempted to explain the situation.

PASADENA OFFICIALS ARE CITED

Face Contempt Charges Over Sewage From Farm Near Alhambra

The Pasadena sewage farm near Alhambra, which has been a subject of controversy all summer, was the cause of another legal action yesterday when Judge Hewitt of Superior Court issued an order requiring City Manager Kehoe and other Pasadena city officials who can why should not be punished for contempt. The order was returnable before Judge Hewitt next Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Information papers asserted that sewage effluent was permitted to escape from the farm the 27th and 28th inst., running over Hillman avenue and Slauson Avenue street on to the property of Monterey Park residents, and that this was in violation of an injunction granted by the Superior Court.

The asserted lure of green jade brought Amos W. Field, 20 years of age, to the “end of the trail” in the City Jail yesterday. Field, according to Detective Lieutenants Max D. Jones and Spinner, was arrested for breaking and entering the residence of Mrs. Neill, 420 South Colorado street, Pasadena, on May 12, last. After his departure a valuable jade necklace and other trinkets were missing from the store.

Field, detectives said, negotiated with the owner of the jade jewelry for the sale of the jade. The latter wanted more. Whereupon, so say the detectives, Field again visited Mrs. Field's store on May 12 and took a large green jade ring around his neck. Mrs. Neill later made a trip to San Francisco and identified Field as the man who had visited her store, the detective said. He was a willing witness, aren't you?

“Well, I'm willing to tell the truth,” he said.

In that case, I shall sentence you to fifty days in jail or a fine of $100.” The judge said. “But sentence is suspended on condition you are present here on October 25 when the trial comes up again.”

GREEKS KILLED IN ENGAGEMENT

Island of Corfu Bombed by Italian Fleet

Fifteen Slain; Refugees and Children Periled

Troops Landed at Samos; LeagueAppealed To

Italy's cabinet made the following declaration:

"Italy will not declare war and we will not accept a declaration of war. We have well-grounded reasons and definite proof that Greek government is responsible for the unheard-of crime against us."

The Greek answer to our note is so far from what we expected that it is impossible to compromise.

Therefore we are compelled to rely on methods and practices sanctioned by international usage of long standing.

There are scores of examples in recent years. In 1902 England, Germany, France and Italy bombarded San Carlos, Venezuela, and captured Venezuelan vessels to compel that government to pay its debts. In 1916, the French bombarded a Greek town to compel Greece to make amends for the killing of some French sailors. Only a few years ago the United States bombarded Vera Cruz and disembarked troops. Vera Cruz was coerced by the Mexican government.

COERCIVE MEASURES

"Coercive methods to be used against Greece will consist of the occupation of some Greek islands, coast towns and some inland towns. We will take possession of some vessels and take over and demand revenues of ports occupied and the sum demanded is collected."

The government has inspired the following statement:

"The government invites newspapers to use discretion in a good measure in the news that they are carrying. The government counts on the patriotism of the Italian press. If the situation demanded it will be necessary that repressive measures be immediately applied."

The correspondents of Greek newspapers have been requested to leave the country within twenty-four hours.

Slayer of Two Is Executed by Utah Gun Squad

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE) SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 31.—George H. Gardner was executed by a firing squad at the Utah State prison at dawn today for the murder of Gordon Stuart, a deputy sheriff, and Joseph Irvine, a ranger.

Deputy Sheriff Stuart and Irvine were shot at the Gardner ranch near Welby, Utah, April 16, 1922.

At the end, Gardner walked without aid to his cell in the death chair and at 6:39 a.m. the signal to the executioners was given and then resounded the voices of gun shots from the squad of five. Gardner died in his chair and in three minutes a physician pronounced him dead.

"His last words at the black hood were, 'I am innocent of the crime of which he was convicted and an expression of sympathy for the widow of the slain deputy awoke me.'

The execution was witnessed by about 100 men, including T. P. John, brother-in-law of the executed man, and Norval Stuart, the father of Deputy Sheriff Stuart.

(FRANKLIN) (Va.) Aug. 31. John Murphy was hanged in the Washington Park jail here shortly after noon for the murder of two deputy sheriffs after he addressed a huge crowd before the jail in one of the windows telling them that "moonshine" liquor was his undoing and urging them not to make it.

CORFU SEIZURE STIRS BRITISH

due in Geneva in the imminent future.

Articles twelve and fourteen of the covenant of the League forbid Italy from making an aggressive act, but Prince Pomili des Vascello, representing Italy at the council until the arrival of former Premier Antonio Salandra, is reported to have explained to friends that Premier Mussolini's seizure of territorial gages will not be followed by any further guarantees to assure the payment of indemnity for the aggressive action by the Greek slayers of the frontier commissioners.

Paris newspaper point out that the whole imbroglio, including the Greek ultimatum, is a desperate attempt by Italy to play for the masterpiece of the Mediterranean campaign. France with Great Britain as Premier Mussolini's ally.

The fight for the supremacy of the Mediterranean started over when former President Wilson, now representing the Italian demands at the Versailles Conference and was aggravated at the Washington Arms Conference through the utilization of the French and American Entente Root's resolution urging restrictions for submarines, which the French felt was Great Britain's favor.

NEW ALIGNMENT

An Anglo-American agreement would be placed France at a disadvantage but any Franco-Sicilian rapprochement would restore France the balance of power.

A dispatch from London says the British still do not believe the Italians are made enough to initiate a war, which, if it breaks out, almost sure to involve the whole Balkans and might even lead to a conflict to that quarter of Europe.

Envoys received no definite proof that the Italian government is responsible for the unheard-of crime against Mussolini.

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) (Copyright, 1923, by the Chicago Tribune)

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—A memorandum of Chancellor Stresemann's Cabinet made the following statement last night:

"It is true that Germany must give up the passive resistance. This step will be taken within a few days after the return of the cabinet from the summer vacation.

"We are asking the press to prepare the German people for an announcement to that effect."

While Stresemann holds a cabinet meeting to discuss the steps to be taken to end the passive resistance and Hugo Stinnes holds a meeting for the same purpose, the resistance will continue.

"The German people are told that the German government is fully prepared to meet the demands of the French and British.

BELIEVE WORLD TOO POPULOUS

BY JACK MYERS

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SYDNEY, Aug. 31.—The Pan-Pacific Scientific Congress yesterday discussed the maximum world population. Prof. Griffith Taylor estimated the population of North America was 700,000,000, of Australia 60,000,000, and of South America 115,000,000. Other speakers regarded the American figure as over-estimated and the Chinese as under-estimated.

Divers Compete on Lofty Boards for National Titles Sunday

PINKSTON AND WHITE FAVORED

Classy Field After Titles in Stanford Pool

Numerous Champions Slated to Compete

Will Perform From Highest Spring Boards

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH!

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 31.—Four great divers who hold all the present American springboard titles which carry any significance are already worded at Camp Searsville Lake, and with four others noted performers expected Saturday afternoon, it is believed that the national high-diving championship will be to be held at Coach Branden's resort on the Stanford Campus Sunday afternoon will afford the greatest national competition of the year in the Jack Knott All-American diving division of water sport.

Those already on the ground are Clarence Pinkston of Stanford competing for the Olympic Club of San Francisco, present world high-diving champion by virtue of victory at the 1920 Olympic games, and holder of the American ten-foot springboard championship. Al White of Stanford competing for the Olympic Club, former six-foot springboard champion, present indoor springboard champion, and Pacific Coast high-diving champion Bud McKee of New York, unattached holder of the present Midwestern high-diving championship, which carries with it the recognized eastern title; Albert Halverson of Chicago, Illinois Athletic Club, Central Association, and Alberto DeForciari of the Olympic Club arrived late today and registered for the competition.

PRIEST ENTERED

Expected at any time are Swenson, Summerville, and Priest of Los Angeles. Priest took third in the high diving at the Olympic games. Harry Keuhn of Oregon is also expected.

The competition Sunday will be for the recognized A.A.U. championships and trophy with the most important American diving title for 1923. The athletes will work from a 27-foot board in eight dives, and from a 6-foot board two required dives performances are the running plain dive and backward somersault from the lower board, and the running and plain from the higher platform. Six other may be selected by the entrant, and practically all the dives of the regular tables will be executed. All competition for the high diving title is from fixed solid platforms.

HUNTERS OUT TO FILL BAGS

hundreds of dove scouters on the field this morning. He declared he has the one spot of them all picked out near Hemet.

John Steffert will do his dove-hunting in the wilds of Chatsworth. He always has a limit at that location in former seasons.

Featherstone will seek his fifteen feathered dove at Conejo Grade. Featherstone will shoot in company with a party of other local sportsmen.

Joe Nadeau will drop his prospectus at midcourt to make sure that he was his and Australia's dropped his racket on the court, and then, in two "Kangaroos," leaped reached the net and grasped Johnstone's hand for the moment he hid the lines of weariness.

But Anderson, halting a second at midcourt to make sure that he was his and Australia's dropped his racket on the court, and then, in two "Kangaroos," leaped reached the net and grasped Johnstone's hand for the moment he hid the lines of weariness.

Up to this moment there had been no demonstration from the gallery as victor and vanquished stood there in the court where a moment before they had been literally in a dead heat.

Anderson, a storm of energy and enthusiasm, sat where the great Davis cup sat gleaming in the sun. Anderson turned and playfully lifted it from the table.

Johnson walked slowly through the room, his eyes on the Davis cup, his head bloody but unbowed.

In addition to the doubles match tomorrow spectators will enjoy an exhibition match between four of the best players known to the sport.

Vincent Richards, a member of the Davis cup committee, and Dr. George B. Stanway, his "head bloody but unbowed" son, will play in doubles with Francis T. Hunter against the reserves of the Australian team. Jim McInnes and Richard Scheidinger, the singles master, will play in doubles with Spanish star, will play an exhibition with Pete Wylie O'Brien or some other good local boy.

J. G. Hatfield of Middlebury, England, won the English men's swimming championship for the sixth time and the third year in succession at Leicester recently.

Two residents of Manitowoc, Wis., have invented an electric pin-boy for use in bowling alleys. The device resets pins and returns the ball.

LOCAL ALUMNI BOOSTS GAME

Johnny Powers, who for years was the popular owner of the Angel baseball club, has entered the ranks of football devotees. Mr. Powers has been selected by the local alumni of Notre Dame College to act as chairman of the committee who will represent the interests of the Indiana college football eleven that is scheduled to battle the University of Southern California team at the new Coliseum December 8. Mr. Powers has communicated with Coach Knute Rockne of the Middletown squad, and assured him in his message that the Notre Dame players can be assured of a warm welcome by the alumni and citizens in Southern California.

Buick Autos Take on Border City Firemen

San Gabriel-Pasadena Eagles Contest at Brookside

BY JOE BUSH
Jimmy Cleary has been busier than the proverbial one-armed passenger for the past week lining up tomorrow's Greater Southern California Baseball Association's schedule. Games have been on, and off, and on once more, but at last all of the wrinkles have been ironed out and a fist set of dates have been arranged.

Harry Nelson's San Gabriel club will engage the Pasadena Eagles, at Brookside Park, Pasadena, in what should be one of the best games on the schedule. San Gabriel opened Butch Gauntner's Azusa team last Sunday, while Sam Cox's indies took the Los Angeles White into camp at the Sox Park.

Hope of seeing him over in Gabriel Cox has selected Russell as his moundsman. Russell will no doubt send Noriega to Hill, Noriega unfurled an excellent game last week, allowing some but six hits, and whiffing and this man's Buick Autos will move to San Diego, where they tackle the Border City Firemen in the first games of their season. The Buicks club won a 2-1 defeat on the road after a bitterly fought heavy battle between Kelley and the same ball will handle the chugging tomboys in another excellent contest in anticipated. The teams will meet in the final and final game of the series on Aug. 26.

This, like any international contest, means much to sports. I have a letter from a Northern writer urging a higher standard of writing relative to contests of this character.

He believes that in some cases all contests are not treated as contests.

The Hollywood Merchants will host Jasper's Los Angeles White at the Sox Park in another of tomorrow's feature games. Eddie Madsen, who would be Slowtime, will be the team's man, which for Carleton's club, while his moundsman will be on the mound for the colored lads in an attempt to reverse the tables.

And tomorrow's sched-

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

SCHOOL FACING FRIGHTOUTLOOK

Auspicious Year Looming at Whittier College

Three Factors Bring About Better Prospects

New Head, Larger Campus, Cash Gift for School

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WHITTIER, Aug. 31.—With the opening of the first semester September 10, Whittier College will this year face the most auspicious outlook it has ever known.

The three factors mentioned to form the prospects. They are a new president, an enlarged campus of about 100 acres and a cash gift of $100,000. These form only a glimpse of the splendid vision of the contractor and friend of the Quaker College have in mind.

Dr. Walter F. Dexter, the new president, is one of the youngest presidents in the West being but 35 years of age.

He was graduated from Penn College at Okalahoma, Iowa, and received his master's degree from Columbia University, and later his doctor's degree from Harvard. He was chosen head of the department of education at Earlham College, Richmond, Ind., and the last summer was spent in a series of lectures at the University of Virginia, on the subjects of vocational administration and the history of education. Since his arrival on the Coast he has been much in demand as a public speaker, especially interested in all school activities.

ENLARGED PROGRAM

In speaking of the present bright outlook for Whittier College Dr. Dexter said: "We are working on an enlarged rather than a changed program for Whittier College. Personally I have never met a finer record in the field of education than I have made at Whittier. We are working on a broad program of extension and improvement, the details of which will soon be given out."

Dr. Dexter is a man accustomed to handling big enterprises. When he was 25 years of age he became rector of the First Congregational Church after having recently graduated from Princeton. After the burning of the college buildings, he was appointed financial agent for the school and in fourteen months succeeded in raising $400,000.

Some months ago he built a new men's dormitory which he has named the "Holden" dormitory, and the new building is a great success.

REDLANDS PLANS GET-AQUAINTED INDUSTRIAL DAY

REDLANDS, Aug. 31.—Two of the three packing-houses burned in the $150,000 fire at Highland a short time ago will be rebuilt in time to take care of this year's crop of oranges. The Highland Exchange Association and the Highland Fruit Growers' Association will be rebuilding at once. Cleghorn Brothers probably will not rebuild.

Both houses will be built on the site occupied by the old houses. The new houses will be larger and each industry in the city to hold open house on a certain day from 2 to 5 p.m.

At that time members of the realty board will put their machines at the disposal of the people who want to make a tour of the industrial section and get acquainted with Redlands in their busier moods when she is making towels, canning baked apples, making apple juice, oranges, laundering clothes, making news-papers, making cider and vinegar, making confection from orange peels, doing a great many other things.

V. H. Mattson suggested the innovation and plans will be made to build a new plant as soon as possible. The officers and a great many of the members of the board leave for Sacramento to attend the State convention of the realty board.

H. P. D. Kingsbury, president of the local board, is to represent Redlands in the five-minute speech contest for various cities, each town having a man to talk five minutes on the charm and possibilities of his town.

SOUTH GATE FLOURISHING

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

SOUTH GATE, Aug. 31.—For a city starting out without a cent and, since incorporating in January, receiving no taxes, South Gate has made a splendid record, experts say. Recently the city engaged the services of H. L. Adelquist, and the board and his report for the city up to that time show that South Gate, at that time had on hand and to its credit in the bank the sum of $3,554.88.

Ventura Judge Thinks It's All Right to Hurry on Cupid Trip

FAIR MAID WEDS HER HERO

Rescued From Surf After Quarrel, Girl Accepts Del Mar Youth for Better or Worse

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

DEL MAR, Aug. 31.—Not every girl gets to marry her hero, but Miss Helen Nolan of Los Angeles is an exception. Today she married Henry Bates of Del Mar, who here last April, and came near dying with his boots on in doing it. Both are 19 years of age.

Miss Nolan has been living in Del Mar more than a year, as secretary to the manager of the Stratford Inn here. Her relatives desired that she return to Los Angeles and she was offered good positions there, but nothing could induce her to leave. And the neighbors, who know practically everything in Del Mar, agreed that Henry was the reason why.

Then they quarreled. But one day last April they quarreled. It was all off. Helen vowed she was going to say good-by to Del Mar forever. She swore she would never see him again till she sent him a letter.

Henry went to the beach to take a swim. In May. She was swimming recklessly. Anyhow, she swam so far she couldn't get back.

The beach was almost deserted, except for lifeguards and duffers. Some women, however, Miss Nolan was in danger and screamed. She was out of reach of buoys which might be thrown from the pier. One was picked off his shoes and became a result of a blow he received when, it is charged, he resisted the officer.

OFFICER INJURES AUTOIST

Shooting Occurs During Traffic Policeman's Attempt to Arrest Accused

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

DEL MAR, Aug. 31.—Not every girl gets to marry her hero, but Miss Helen Nolan of Los Angeles is an exception. Today she married Henry Bates of Del Mar, who here last April, and came near dying with his boots on in doing it. Both are 19 years of age.

Miss Nolan has been living in Del Mar more than a year, as secretary to the manager of the Stratford Inn here. Her relatives desired that she return to Los Angeles and she was offered good positions there, but nothing could induce her to leave. And the neighbors, who know practically everything in Del Mar, agreed that Henry was the reason why.

Then they quarreled. But one day last April they quarreled. It was all off. Helen vowed she was going to say good-by to Del Mar forever. She swore she would never see him again till she sent him a letter.

Henry went to the beach to take a swim. In May. She was swimming recklessly. Anyhow, she swam so far she couldn't get back.

The beach was almost deserted, except for lifeguards and duffers. Some women, however, Miss Nolan was in danger and screamed. She was out of reach of buoys which might be thrown from the pier. One was picked off his shoes and became a result of a blow he received when, it is charged, he resisted the officer.

FAIR WILL HAVE DATE SHOW

Sheiks and Pretty Girls to be Feature of New Department at Riverside Exhibition

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 31.—Dates and oranges are to be headliners at this year's Southern California Fair. This was made certain yesterday when Secretary W. W. Van Pelt announced that arrangements had been completed for the date show and for a citrus demonstration department.

Mr. Van Pelt's announcement means that Riverside's fair is to be unique. There are a half-dozen fairs in California, but in none of them will there be a date show or a citrus demonstration such as is to be seen here. It means also that the local exhibition will attract attention throughout the country.

The date show, a new department will be bearing in a tent. Palms in bearing will be brought in from Coachella valley, and the interior will be a veritable date grove. Contests will be closed yesterday with twenty girls, who will appear in Arab costumes as desert beauties. Fair directors report that the date show will be incomplete without a shell, so they have engaged one, but several. These young men are Egyptian who have come from Egypt to Coalinga Valley, where they are students at the Federal experiment station.

They will be present at the date show in oriental costume.

CITY CHARTER IS SUBJECT OF KHJ

Fans Told—Document Should Not be Reactionary

Clarke Says Government Now is Antiquated

Holds Spirit of Los Angeles is Not Reflected

The new charter of Los Angeles must be neither radical nor reactionary. But must reflect the spirit and ideals of the community's entire citizenship, according to former Judge Robert M. Clarke, president of the Board of Freshmen who delivered an address at the city's proposed new charter over KHJ, "The Times' radio, last night. Judge Clarke said:

"Fifteen men and women are engaged in working to frame for Los Angeles a new organic act or City Charter. These men and women compose a body authorized by the State Constitution and called a Board of Freshmen.

CHARTER ANTIQUATED

The reasons for the creation of the Board of Freshmen are two-fold:

First, the present charter was adopted in 1858 and is, therefore, thirty-four years old. In that year the city of Los Angeles was a small city until it is today the great metropolis of the Southwest, and the largest city in the Union west of St. Louis. In this great change have been made in the social and economic life of the people. Changes have been made in the charter from time to time in deference to the needs of the electorate to meet present day requirements. In this the people have not altogether failed; but the present charter is concerned with consistent and overlapping provisions that may be said to be a "veritable patchwork."

I believe it was Lincoln who said that "any people will have a government that is good enough to deserve," and recent world events have taught us the very great importance of government. In its various functions touches us and controls us in every hand. The guard and protection of our liberties and our property. The activities of the municipality now direct the mode and method of daily life. It controls our transportation. It protects our homes and land. It prescribes the manner and use of our private property and in short regulates our daily intercourse with one another.

The problem then is to have a charter that better suits us, because the problem of government is the most vital and important that any individual can have before him.

PROBLEMS MANY

The next and most important reason for the activities and work of the Board of Freshmen is due to the fact that a condition has arisen in the city of Los Angeles which seems to call for immediate attention. It is a significant fact that important changes in the form of government, either of a nation or of a city, only come as a result of a national or a local emergency of the State or the city. The Constitution of the United States was framed at a time in our national history when the old Articles of Confederation had signally failed in their operation. This is also said to be true of the amendment to the Constitution which have resulted from great stress applied to our form of government. This has been well illustrated by the amendment following the Civil War and those that recently came into existence. The new Organic Act by reason of our participation in the World War. As it is with a nation so it is with a city, and thoughtful citizens are convinced that there is something wrong with the government of Los Angeles.

If the city was functioning properly and referred to the welfare of its inhabitants, there would be no need for the establishment by a group of private citizens of the Los Angeles Crime Commission. The publication of the names of crime is a duty which should be performed by the municipality functioning through its duly constituted authorities. If the present provisions of the constitution were adequate, and the plan adopted for the sufficient enforcement, there would be no reason for a group of citizens to organize themselves into a Har-Devonshire League and exert the same influence upon the city.

Kipling's famous words, "What is a city? It is with a city, and thoughtful citizens are convinced that there is something wrong with the government of Los Angeles.

If the city was functioning properly and referred to the welfare of its inhabitants, there would be no need for the establishment by a group of private citizens of the Los Angeles Crime Commission. The publication of the names of crime is a duty which should be performed by the municipality functioning through its duly constituted authorities. If the present provisions of the constitution were adequate, and the plan adopted for the sufficient enforcement, there would be no reason for a group of citizens to organize themselves into a Har-

Devonshire League and exert the same influence upon the city.

The Los Angeles Harbor belongs to all the citizens of this great city; its management and administration should rest with the duly constituted authorities. There are two instances where this is apparent that for some reason, the government of this great city is inefficient to cope with its many and varied problems.

MUST REFLECT SPIRIT

The new charter of the city of Los Angeles must be neither radical nor reactionary. It should not reflect the spirit of Los Angeles and the ideals and aims of our splendid citizenship. In its place the Board of Freshmen welcome the old and advice of every citizen, however humble. The work will come to naught if the co-operation of the individual citizens is not to those charged with this important duty.

If, on the other hand, the work of this board is watched with care and the intelligence of the ordinary man who is not sidetracked by a desire to be a public figure in the government of this great city, I will, I am sure, greatly aid in hastening the day when the city of Los Angeles will reach and attain that great destiny which is hers.

CULTURE LECTURE

Needless to say, Mr. Hill can sing and Mr. Hatch can play. Thousands of listeners will hear them when they will pick up this statement. We assert it voluntarily and without duress every time they appear at KJL.

Mr. Hatch, pianist, of the Superior Court.

Mr. Raymond Hill, tenor, and Bill Hatch, pianist, one of the best-known entertainers in the city, will be at the Auditorium during the matinee program.

went riding together frequently. A party was arranged and on May 10 they set out for Long Beach. From there they proceeded to Los Angeles Harbor, returning to Los Angeles about midnight. Near the city Beasley was killed. The exact cause of death is not known, but the essence of the murder indicated that he had been murdered with his own gun. Three days after the crime was committed Boatwright was arrested. The evidence was collected, resulting in his conviction.

PEW IN THE PULPIT

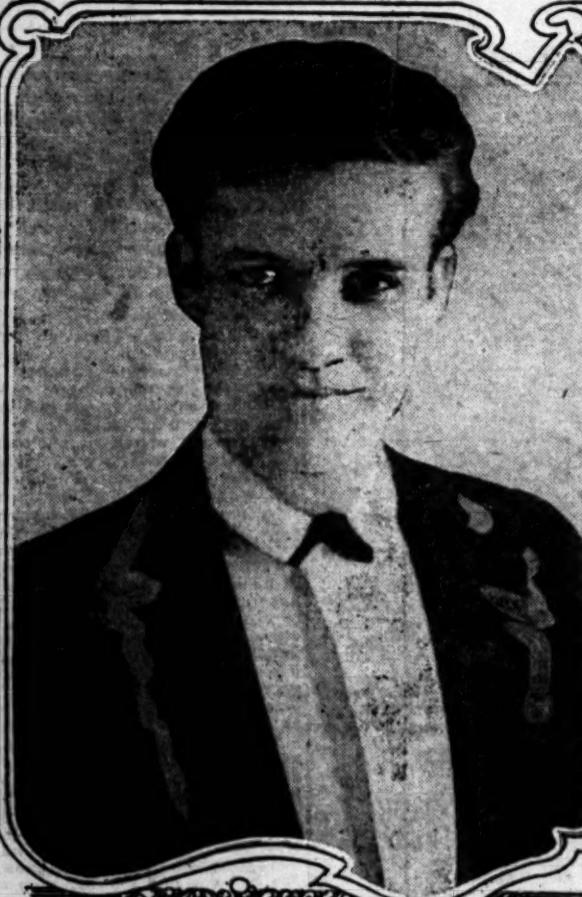

Dr. G. A. Briegele, pastor of the Westlake Presbyterian Church, will begin a series of sermons tomorrow evening in which the men of the church will be given an opportunity to "talk it over" with the pastor. The general theme of the sermon series is "Preachers as They Are," while leading citizens will follow the sermon with addresses on "The Ideal Preacher." The pastor will continue his series of sermons on "Mountain Messages of the Master."

Louis Ruth Phillips, violinist, a pupil of E. W. Albrecht, was featured on the evening program. Her selections were enjoyable.

An organ recital from the First Methodist Episcopal Church was broadcast by long telephone from 6:45 to 7:15 p.m. Arthur B. Bailey, organist of note, was at the Ewart Watchorn memorial organ.

CELLIST IS RADIO FEATURE

Russian Artist Favorably Received by Fans; Tower of Babel Gets Wallop

"You have heard, of course," said Ossip Giskin, Russian cellist, of the Moscow orchestra—72 pieces—that plays without a conductor. Yes, there are two such orchestras, playing Strauss and Scriabin, and others that are more popular.

Giskin, who has been here for three years of age, has seen much music from Russia. He appeared on a Times program last night arranged through the courtesy of Estelle Brooks Mills. He sang first in a concert at the Imperial Conservatory. For two years he was soloist at the Moscow Imperial Opera and, for two years in Petrograd, appeared in a chamber orchestra.

This fall he will appear with a local string quartet now being organized by a well-known artist.

LYRIC SOPRANO

The cellist was well received by listeners last night. Estelle Mills played his accompaniment.

The program arranged also presented one of her advanced pupils, Easter Richards, pleasing lyric soprano, whose songs came easily and clearly and nicely in tone.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?
Among the new post offices in the Northwest is George Washington, which sounds like the father of his country. There is also a suggestion in Klukitit county—which seems like a good county for jazz.

CARRYING ON
Christabel Pankhurst is now a priestess of the second advent. She was a militant suffragette for years. Having gained the ballot, she is now in a crusade that will last her the rest of her days—provided she places her prophecy far enough ahead.

HARDWARE NOTE
There is no use in running a man through the smelter for the sake of the metal in him. All the iron and the carcass of the average human weight about as much as a dime and is mostly in the blood. Men of iron are really of a different sort of mettle.

AMONG THE NUTS
An inmate of the insane asylum at Buffalo is running for Alderman in that city. Some 60 citizens signed his petition. For such a movement there seems to be neither excuse nor reason.

ON THE LINKS
There are many who had looked upon golf as a modern sport—something that had grown up with the rising generation, but here comes an English physician who has been playing the game for more than sixty years. It was quite an old affair when he took it up, but it has not seemed to age much in his day.

SPIRITUAL SCANDALS

Liquor prescriptions for 2,350,000 persons were filled in Illinois during the fiscal year. The druggists handled nearly 600,000 more blanks than were issued by the government. This would look almost as if spiritual hands were at work. Think of filling 500,000 more prescriptions than were printed! Somebody is suspected of duplicity.

THE MISSOURI IDEA

Missouri farmers are going to have 25 per cent less acreage in wheat next season.

Presumably they intend to diversify their crops a bit. If the farmers could get together on a planting and marketing program they would have the world by the ears. It is perhaps best for the rest of us that they do not consolidate their energies on a definite schedule. Now the Missourians are going to show what they can do.

DEEPENING THE DEEP

London has some eighty miles of docks and leads the world in the magnitude of its shipping, yet the great city is planning to spend $100,000,000 more in harbor extensions in order to afford a welcome to some of the vast Leviathans of the deep. Poor old London has to blow in many millions of hard-earned English pounds in order to preserve her rank as the globe's greatest marine market. If Los Angeles were to add $100,000,000 to her harbor one brief season, would make her the foremost shipping point of the world.

TOO MANY COOKS

Dr. Sun Yat Sen says that China can have herself and would even now be on her feet if the other peoples would let her alone. He thinks that Uncle Sam is the worst offender of the lot. But the diplomats of other countries keep stirring things up over the recognition of this or that regime and the result is a sustained embroilment. If China had to make herself and paddle her own canoe she could quickly learn to do it without rocking the boat. China is suffering from too many doctors. Possibly Dr. Sun Yat Sen is one of them.

WOMEN READERS

When a man sits contemptuously on coming to the judge's department of the paper, indicating his belief that no one really cares for that, it is evidence that the selfish brute always reads the paper first before turning it over to his wife. Otherwise, he would quickly learn better from his daily efforts to piece together the scissored fragments.

Women get more out of the paper, in every way, than men do. When a man wants to buy anything, from socks to bonds, he studies the advertisements carefully, but at other times he merely skims the "pure reading matter." But women always read the advertisements first, so as not to be off watch when opportunity knocks, and then turn their attention to society, clubs, recipes, fashions and general news.

Maybe it is just because men do not habitually keep scissors near them, but women are the great clippers. From one page a recipe, from another an advertisement, from another a sketch of something new in shopdom and from another a poem are saved for further consideration. It is the women, bless 'em, who really appreciate the printed word.

Yes, women get more out of the paper than men do and leave less in it—as every man knows who has tried to read the paper after them.

In the light of this report we take pleasure in reporting that the Times is the only newspaper in the city to offer its readers a complete newspaper service.

Again a report of the American Bar Association draws attention to the excessive number of crimes of violence throughout the United States.

This can not be attributed to the effects of the war. In countries where the influence of the war was felt as it never was felt here, in Belgium, France and Great Britain, there is no such epidemic of crime of violence.

Perhaps one of the most distressing features in this report of the American Bar Association is that in the last ten years the criminal population has increased at a higher rate than the population in general—and that crimes accompanied by violence head the list.

Thus in London last year there were seventeen murders, not one of which went unsolved. This as against 260 murders in New York and 127 in Chicago. And yet there were poverty and hardship for the poor poor soul such as Chicago and New York never experienced.

Or compare 7850 murders in the United States with 558 for the whole of France and sixty-three for England and Wales. Or ask why, in 1918, according to official figures, there were more than ten times as many robberies in Chicago as in the French republic.

Again the American Bar Association, therefore, draws attention to the lack of vigorous enforcement of the criminal laws and declares means provided in the United States for coping with crime are neither adequate nor efficient.

Apparently, the Poincaré government is thorough in accord with Gen. Mangin's scheme for strengthening the republic through absorption of natives from the African continent. The general may be right.

To WHOM CREDIT IS DUE

The United States and Mexico are to resume full diplomatic relations. The restoration of relations carries with it full recognition by the United States of the government of President Obregon.

This diplomatic event is, perhaps, more than any other one thing, a tribute to Gen. Alvaro Obregon.

When he took office as President of Mexico, Obregon faced a great and difficult task.

Revolution after revolution had torn the nation into factions and shreds of factions.

Mexico as a government and a republic was prostrate. Her treasury was empty, her credit with the world nil. Her commerce and industry were in ruins and no capital would venture in from outside. Banditry was rampant and lawlessness in the saddle. Life was unsafe and property his who could seize and hold it.

It was a prospect before which the stoutest heart might have quailed.

With courage, with patience, with justice, with impartiality and with enlightened energy, Obregon tackled the job.

He has struggled through to the light.

Recognition by the world's most powerful and most influential nation, with all that that recognition implies, has rewarded his efforts.

Recognition by the United States does not mean that Mexico's troubles are over, but it does mean that the hand of a strong man is felt at the helm and that the world may have confidence in the Mexican government. It does not mean that Mexico's problems have been solved, but it does mean that a man has been found who can solve them. Recognition has not, as by a miracle, wiped out at a stroke the troubled past of Mexico, but it has opened a real future to her. Mexico has a long way to go but recognition has cleared the path for her progress.

A great future awaits Mexico. She has boundless resources, a strategic situation, unlimited wealth in oil and soil and unlimited possibilities.

Perhaps, best of all, she has the satisfaction of having gone through the fire and of having emerged with scars of honor.

Also she has the glory of knowing that out of her difficulties and her trials she has brought forth into the gallery of strong men a leader capable of piloting his country through agony and grief and danger and placing it upon its feet, a nation among nations.

ITALY MOVES ON TANGIER

Mussolini's unexpected move on Tangier must be mystifying to European diplomats; it certainly is to American observers. For such a movement there seems to be neither excuse nor reason.

By a stretch of geography or of the imagination can the quiet harbor at the northwest corner of Africa be connected with the murder of her military commissioners for which Italy is demanding satisfaction from Greece. The occupation of Tangier by Italian troops can only be regarded as a challenge to Spain and France.

The splendid harbor on the Moroccan coast has suffered more evil from the jealousies of warring nations than possibly any other seaport on the face of the earth. Apparently the little city, with its quaint bazaars, colorful costumes and comfortable tourist hotels, is to be baited around again by those who don't belong to it.

Four centuries B.C. under the name of Tingis, Tangier was occupied by the Romans. But since Augustus Caesar himself declared it a free city Mussolini can hardly use that ancient occupation as a reason for his present action. Since the Christian era Tangier has been captured successively by the Vandals, Byzantines, Arabs, Portuguese and Spanish, bombarded by the French and owned temporarily by the British, who in 1884 abandoned it to the Moors.

The formation of the Los Angeles Crime Commission to strengthen and expedite the enforcement of the criminal laws is a direct answer to the reprimand of the American Bar Association. The issue is a serious one. The time for merely talking about it is past. It remains for every large city in America to take the same practical steps as those taken by Los Angeles and we shall see the desired change in the crime statistics of the nation.

THE KLAN THAT KLEANNES

Activities of the nightshirt brotherhood are being maintained. What was intended to be an impressive demonstration near Pittsburg developed into a riot. One man was killed and numbers wounded. Several arrests were made. Most of those of the Klan who were searched were armed. They were used for carrying concealed weapons.

In another community upward of 500 women were publicly initiated into the skirted auxiliary of the Klan.

In New Zealand something like 1000 citizens—largely from the ranks of union labor—have started a Ku Klux Klan. Their announced purpose is to keep New Zealanders for New Zealanders. In that they throw their knowledge that Los Angeles is pioneering the way for a better state of things. The citizens of Los Angeles are not apathetic nor indifferent to the danger this increase in crime may mean to the American republic.

THE BITTER BIT

Japan has just been given a dose of the medicine she for many years tried to administer to unwilling California. Possibly today the Japanese feel a little more kindly toward their white friends on the American Pacific Coast who thought the Japanese race was so much more picturesque and interesting in its native environment. For now Japan can see things as the Californian once saw them.

Japan never could understand, or professed she never could understand, why the people of this State objected so strenuously to the importation of Japanese laborers to the California vineyard. The Japs were good workers, law-abiding and tractable, not given to political activities, very industrious and saving, seldom found among the wards on public charity and never gave excessive trouble to the police department.

But the people of California didn't want them as a big factor in the population of this State. They didn't fit. They were a complication.

Now Japan is face to face with a problem at home of a similar nature and she shows just the same feeling about it as California felt over the oriental invasion. Indeed, in the case of California the trouble was more aggravated, being racial as well as economic.

Chinese and Korean laborers have started an influx on a large scale to the attractive field of Japanese industry. Over 60,000 have already arrived. The wages they can earn in Japan are double what they can get in their homelands. They work longer hours for less wages and are as efficient as the natives.

But the Japanese people are putting up a mighty howl against this competition from China and Korea. They are frantically urging the government at Tokio to do something to shut off this stream of immigrants.

And the Tokio officials are in a fix to do about it. They perhaps wish now that they had not been so insistent about racial and commercial equality and liberty of immigration to other countries.

In these days of table-turnings it is not prudent to express too strong an opinion on any national issue. What happened in California yesterday may happen in Japan tomorrow. The whirligig of time has an unpleasant habit of bringing in its revenges at an inconvenient moment.

the past grow dim and weigh less heavily upon us in old age than they did when they occurred. This is probably a wise provision of nature whereby sensitiveness to sorrow is dulled as the power of resistance weakens. We accept the death of our loved ones, of our dearest friends, with grief, it is true, but with the feeling that death was inevitable and not altogether a calamity. Man, however, in his youth, as the years progress, can adjust themselves to present conditions without regrets or lamentations. Such a state of mind is probably a gradual preparation for the time when we, too, must go; when for us life's troubled waters will be stilled and all the heartaches of the years gone by be left behind.

In the city of Los Angeles, where more surprising things happen than anywhere else on Earth, a woman lecturer has had to appeal to the police to keep an insistent woe from pursuing her.

And it is to be assumed that the last one took that drastic action after lecturing her would-be husband had failed to check his ardor.

The man in this case must be what Earthites call a glutton for punishment. There are countless men on Earth who have married lecturers, but most of them didn't meet it out until after marriage.

One of the cases transferred is that of a man who was riding a Pacific Electric Railway. This is a suit in which the plaintiff asks $10,000 for injuries received while in Los Angeles, on account of the Pacific Electric and the highway leading from the submarine base.

BACKED INTO AUTO

The plaintiff asserted that a Pacific Electric freight train, moving at a high rate of speed, struck a dog, a whistle or other signal backed into the automobile in which he was riding and hurled the automobile about 12 feet. In this case he was seriously injured both internally and externally.

The man created considerable alarm among the people in Los Angeles, who looked upon it as miraculous that all occupants of the automobile were not killed.

Another transferred case will be heard on September 1.

It is the action of the Big Rock Mutual Water Company against the Valmyer Ranch company at the same time that the man has greatly interested himself in this case as

In this enlightened and business-like age few people die without a funeral service. They will, but more than a few fail to make their wills properly, thereby running the chance of having their property divided among heirs who matter for the heirs, who suffer accordingly. You see, there are certain technicalities not always understood by the majority of persons that have great bearing upon the matter.

Now, wise is the man or woman who consults his attorney and uses the Bank of Italy as his lawyer. This has been a department which will be of very great value to you and will gladly give you the benefit of the knowledge they possess. You will find Mr. Ryan in charge.

You know there is a limit to one's endurance, especially when married to the Argentinean variety in particular, grow so destructive that we feel that unless something is done at once the house is in danger. What can be done? "Something" is to make immediate plans to have the "Cal-Do" system installed about your home and in the yard. Their vibration jar will eliminate these pests and have them all beaten for satisfaction. Wouldn't it be an excellent idea to write or phone the Cal-Do Sales Co., 1842 W. A rubber sponge is an excellent thing to use in cleaning lint, fuzz or hair from children's clothing. Moisten the sponge with water and then squeeze almost dry before using. Such a sponge is of great use in removing paint stains from clothing, as their hair is very hard to remove with a brush.

If you want absolutely the best you must order your milk from the L. A. Creamery. Experts say that the difference in milk is astounding, due, of course, to the health of the cows from which it is obtained, the amount of butterfat which is left in, and the manner in which it is bottled. L. A. Milk is rich and sanitary, good for you and all families. Another reason to recommend them is the perfect services they give their patrons. Courteous drivers deliver your milk to you at a convenient early hour, and when you wonder if your cream will come in time for breakfast, you know it will. Better call them up and have them deliver milk to you.

Almond and banana salad: Peel and slice three bananas, cut in half, add a cupful of apricot jam with lemon juice. Chop one-half pound of salted almonds very fine, roll the bananas in them. When you stop to consider the matter, isn't it an almost constant need for a reliable storehouse? Fortunately the Lyon Company maintains a large home and taking a small apartment or flat means that many valuable pieces of furniture may not be needed, and these should be entrusted to their care.

Then, too, the actual moving if left to the Lyon Storage Co., will entirely convince you that every article you own, whether it is storing your furniture or carrying it from one address to another, is done to give satisfaction in every way. Particularly commendable are those ordered from the Proctor, Tamm and Anderson Co., 124 E. L. A. St., over their color combinations are works of art and their materials and workmanship the best. Better get an estimate now, for here in California stores are all-year-round necessities.

PLAN TWO NEW HIGH BUILDINGS

Office Structure to Go Up in Spring Street

Twelve-Story Hotel Also to be Erected

Structures Will Cost About $2,000,000

Two height-limit buildings are being planned for immediate erection. It was learned yesterday. Approximately $2,000,000 will be expended in their construction.

Preliminary transactions are being made for a # three-story office structure near the southeast corner of Seventh and Spring streets by the Bowes Realty Company at a cost of $1,000,000. This fact was disclosed following the completion of architectural sketches by local planners bidding for the work.

SHOP EXTENSIVE

The lot has a frontage of fifty feet on Spring street, is 150 feet in depth and 150 feet deep from the curb. The structure will be Class A, of reinforced concrete and will be similar to the building planned by Cahn, McCabe & Co., Standard brothers, on the corner for $75,000.

Architect Leonard L. Jones has been commissioned to prepare drawings for a twelve-story hotel on the corner of Spring and Franklin streets involving an expenditure of $1,000,000. The hotel is to be erected under supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Young, managers of the Compton Motor Hotel.

More than 250 rooms will be contained in the building. A ballroom will be provided. The site is sixty feet wide, 128 feet deep and is in the vicinity of several large buildings now being erected.

NEW CHURCH PLANNED

A new church for the Ninth Church of Christ, Scientist will be built on the corner of Fifth street and Normandie avenue at a cost of $300,000, according to Meyer & Holler, of the Milwaukee Building Company. Work will be started as soon as architectural drawings have been completed and the site has been cleared.

Architect G. S. Underwood will be in charge of the erection of six large hotels in the Zion Canyon National Park region for the Union Pacific Railroad. It is estimated that the hotels will cost $3,500,000. The first buildings will be erected at Cedar City, the Brakes and Millford, Utah.

Mrs. Edward Dimmick has purchased a four-family dwelling at 42 South Kingsley Drive for a reported consideration of $75,000. The owner was F. M. Dimmick.

PRIZE BABY PICKING IS POSTPONED

Many Youngsters Are on Exhibit at Exhibition by W.C.T.U.; Bryan There

One hundred and fifty babies of the Highland Park neighborhood cooed, or cried, ate or slept yesterday in the Showplace while judges struggled with the task of picking the prize winners in the King W.C.T.U.'s annual baby show. The time came for the parade, which was scheduled for 2 p.m., the entrants were still coming and finally Mrs. Annie McK. White, president of the club, announced that the prizes would not be awarded until Monday.

Even William Jennings Bryan, seasoned campaigner that he is, couldn't kiss them all, nor would he attempt to pick the prettiest one, with which he was photographed. He posed for his picture at the head of the parade, however, and rode in it along Pasadena avenue.

After the parade the youngsters were wheeled back to the Ebell clubhouse, where judges resumed work.

It is the hope of those in charge that the show will lead to the organization of a child welfare section for the Highland Park section.

Woman Is Dead of Injuries in Fall From Auto

As a result of injuries sustained when she fell or jumped from the rear seat of an automobile Wednesday night, Mrs. Katie Hannan, 26, was in a critical condition yesterday at the General Hospital.

The driver of the car was A. Mayor of 146 West Sixty-sixth street. He told police that he and wife, with the two sons of Mrs. Hobson, 749 East Fifty-second street, and took her and her little daughter for a ride. When they reached the intersection of Forty-second street and McKinley avenue, he said she either fell or jumped from the car. She did not regain consciousness.

DEAD MAN'S IDENTITY SOUGHT BY HOSPITAL

Officials of the General Hospital are attempting to establish the identity of a man who died at the institution on August 27 last, who was known to them by the given name of Francisco. The man joined a gang of Mexican robbers at Los Angeles and Aspinwall. He came ill and was brought to the hospital in an unconscious condition.

A search of his clothing failed to disclose his identity.

White sugar does not happen to be white—it is made white. Raw sugar is dark brown. It is only when all the impurities and coloring and strong flavor are refined out of raw sugar that you have white sugar—pure sweetness.

Wife of "Prince Chap," Seeking Divorce, Says Sculptor Husband's Shiftlessness Embarrasses Her

The good ship Romance, skippered by Hollywood's "Prince Chap," yesterday with his wife Yvonne Gardelle, motion-picture star, former Ziegfeld beauty, dancer and inspirational model, appeared before Judge Summerfield, asking for divorce.

And they were married August 3, 1922.

Early this year came separation, then separation again.

Yvonne Mrs. Gardelle declared her husband shiftless; said his memory was imperfect. He would take contracts for his work, she plus a desire for companionship, led to the baby's adoption.

He wished her crew to marry another man. Her marriage was soon dissolved. Years passed.

she was forced to work hard in pictures and as a model all the time in order to pay his bills and keep her reputation for honesty.

And she says she became ashamed to face her friends.

One of these friends, called to the bench in Police Court yesterday, said of several instances when she called at the house late at night and found the actress working on jobs the husband had taken.

What was the husband doing at the time?" Attorney Walter J. Little asked.

"Just sitting around maulding," he replied.

The case was taken under advisement.

All building records in the history of Los Angeles for a year were broken during August according to figures completed by the building department. The record, totaling $22,249,262, was set in the previous highest month, July, $1,055,175. BUILDING MARKValue Month's Construction at $22,249,262Total of 5932 Permits Are to be Eclipsed*

All building records in the history of Los Angeles for a month were broken during August, according to figures compiled and made public yesterday by the city record, totaling $22,249,262, which 4,932 permits exceed those of the previous highest month, March, at $1,653,175. Not only was the month the largest on record in valuation, but it also破了 previous marks in the number of permits issued just closed, in almost twice that of August, 1922, in point of valuation.

August figures bring the year's total to $18,221,726, as compared with $79,847,159 for the corresponding period of last year. To date more than 40,000 permits, representing structures ranging in cost from houses to giant office and hotel buildings, have been issued by the building department.

Chief Deputy Building Inspector Welch yesterday expressed the be-

WAYFARER TO OFFEND NONE*Battle Scene in Prologue Arranged so as Not to Raise Any Feeling Among Nationalities*

The battle scene in the prologue of "The Wayfarer," contrary to a prevailing notion, will offend no nationality, according to an announcement made yesterday by Alton E. Allen, vice-president of the Wayfarer Society of California.

The battle scene, while representing a stricken Flanders village in the World War, shows merely a chaotic condition rather than any particular opposing forces.

SHIPS REFUGEE
No foreign uniform is worn in this scene, which depicts a hundred mass of Belgian refugees cowering before the bursting of shells and the roar of cannon. The only hint of nationality among the contestants comes in the name of the Army charges upon the scene and rescues the refugees.

With the first rehearsal of cast and chorus to be held in the Carrington Auditorium, it is expected that the year's total will be close to $200,000,000. A monthly average of $15,000,000 during the next four months would bring the total to more than $190,000,000.

Despite the great rush for applications, the building department has kept pace with the demands. Mr. Welch said yesterday that the checking department, which a few weeks ago, was three weeks behind, is now up to date in its work.

The department reported available for the amount of residential construction undertaken. More than 60 per cent of the total valuation represents the construction of dwelling units, the value of $11,521,602 having been issued for this class of construction. Accommodations for more than 4,000 families, or approximately 20,000 persons were provided throughout the month's construction activity.

The largest permit of the month was for a two-story steel-frame building, $1,600,000. Permits were taken out for nineteen Class A buildings, ranging in size from one to thirteen stories, and in cost from $4500 to $800,000. The total value of these buildings is $1,000,000. With this record, Los Angeles, it is believed, will continue to occupy the position of third city in the country in the amount of building construction, which it did throughout the year. Since January Los Angeles has been exceeded only by New York and Chicago.

INSTRUCTORS ADDED
Three instructors have been added to the faculty of the school of Commerce of Southwestern University. They are William E. White, former chief financial counselor; internal revenue in the sixteenth district; Melvin D. Wilson, for three years manager of the income tax unit at Washington, and Dr. L. L. Galligher, a graduate of Yale University, instructor in business law.

Patrolman H. H. Perry diabolically have empty boxes hurled from second-story windows crash upon his head. Officer Perry was ambushing down the street outside of the Wilson Hotel on West First street, when a peace officer disturbed by galaxies and constables.

They were playing black-jack, "They told me that I had just missed the big game," said Perry.

The seven men finally stood up to plead. Six said "Guilty," but Ernest Luque, who signals that he is deaf and dumb, set up a violent shaking of the head. The judge gesticulated and concluded that he meant that he was innocent.

"I don't think he was playing," said the judge, "so he is discharged."

Woods and Tibbage, two defendants, then declared that they were not playing. The other four showed signs of saying the same thing.

"Look here," observed Judge Chambers, "there must have been a game going on. All you men are guilty. Now you try to make me believe that nobody was gambling. How about it?"

"Well," said one, "I was so busy trying to get back my money I didn't notice what was going on."

The plea held and all were sentenced to 100 days or $100 fine. The sentences of Woods and Tibbage were suspended.

COUNCIL ORDERS
SEWER SURVEYS
FOR EAGLE ROCK

The City Council yesterday instructed City Engineer Griffin to gather all pertinent information for Eagle Rock City's sewer system. Upon the City Engineer's recommendation, the Council ordered the section, which recently was annexed, to be divided into three districts, and for surveys to be made of each district looking toward construction of sewers to be connected with the Los Angeles disposal system.

Mr. Griffin estimates that about thirty miles of sewers will be necessary for Eagle Rock City.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MUNICIPAL LEAGUE AND THE PAN-AMERICAN PETROLEUM COMPANY APPEARED YESTERDAY BEFORE THE BOARD OF HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS IN THE MATTER OF THE LEASE OF A PORTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE HARBOUR BOARD FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN OIL-LOADING STATION BY THAT COMPANY.

Pier No. 1. The occasion was a presentation to the commissioners by the local representatives of a copy of their communication to the City Council charging that the Harbor Board had granted the lease illegally and that the oil station on the pier would constitute a fire menace to Los Angeles.

H. L. Moller of the executive committee of the League, Anthony Pratt, the League's secretary, and Charles Wellborn, attorney for the company, were present. Mr. Moller said the objection might not have been raised had the lease been for five years, but that it was for thirty years and, he contends, is contrary to the spirit of the law.

It is the contention of the League that a clause in the law making the pier sacred to public uses with respect to permanent leases to private corporations never has been repealed properly.

Dr. M. W. McLean of the Board of Harbor Commissioners said the lease is in the name of the oil company and the oil company's lease is the property of the oil company.

Mr. Wellborn said the financial investment the company was making and declared that precautions would be taken to do away with the fire hazard. President McLean of the Board of Harbor Commissioners said the lease had been granted the company after approval by City Attorney Stephens.

The City Council already has blocked the oil company's enterprise by refusing to grant the necessary permits for the construction of oil pipe lines over city property to the tanks on the property of the oil company.

The council unanimously took that action pending an inquiry as to whether the oil tanks are being properly placed at the very mouth of the harbor.
